Dear Sir.

I am writing in regard to a letter I received from Blue Granite Water Co. (formerly United Utilities) This is in reference to Docket No. 2018 358-WS. These people are wanting another raise. We are presently paying $65.08 per month for Sewer only. This amount is already way over what anyone in Union pays for Sewer and probably more than Columbia pays for Sewer. They want a raise just about every other year. Now they want $2.80 per month. That's a raise of 7.72. In the past I have gone to Columbia to represent our housing developments of Fairwood here in Union.

I am now 83 years old and unable to make the trip anymore. I also live on Social Security and find this bill very hard to keep up with. I hope after checking on Sewer charges in surrounding areas you will please not give them another raise. What they do is put raise into effect even before you give it.

Thank you for reading my letter
Mrs. Janet Marks
